

How can workers be protected from exposure to carcinogenic substances?

1.

Check which substances you work with.

Find out if there are carcinogenic risks based on your work or sector.

2.

Learn about the substances and what symptoms could affect you.

Know the facts about each carcinogen and learn their risks and exposure limits.

3.

Find possible measures and other possible solutions.

Use our knowledge base of measures and best practices to reduce or eliminate exposure.

Get started at stopcarcinogensatwork.eu